Looking for an interesting promotional item which is both useful and catchy?

We recommend the Hourglass which is also known as sand glass, sand timer, sand clock and even an egg timer. It has two connected vertical glass bulbs allowing a regulated trickle of material from the top to the bottom. Once the top bulb is empty, it can be inverted to begin timing again. Available in 5 minutes and 15 minutes timers. With your company's logo laser engraved or silk printed or UV on the item, it will be a suitable corporate gift to customers. It is crucial to choose the right promotional gift for your target customers. The attractive and unique design will catch your customer's attention. This way, your products will stand out from
